We make sure that every customer shall be satisfied, first:

—By selling nothing but goods of the most satisfactory quality at their price.

Second:

—By being very sure that every article is the best obtainable, of its kind, at its price.

—Come! knowing that you are going to be perfectly satisfied.

Some astonishingly pretty new Blouses on sale tomorrow—priced at just $2

So pretty, so genteel and so very appealing are these new blouses that $2.00 seems to be an exceeding moderate price. And still, bought favorable, at this low price they can be sold. It's the frequent arrival of such exceptional values as there that has won for us the place of undisputed leadership in the sale of Waists. There's not a small quantity in this new lot, and so an early call is advised.

The Welworth—a better Blouse at $2.00—is sold here exclusively.

OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

Press Club Sandwiches.

Here is a sandwich that is always a favorite with the men and boys. Toast your bread a good rich brown, toast quickly so that it will be soft inside. Butter bread and sprinkle lightly with salt and pepper. Place a slice of hot fried ham (thin), a slice of cream cheese and one slice of Bermuda onion, one above the other on bottom layer of sandwich, and second piece of toast on top. Serve hot.—Farm Life.

Raspberry Blanc Mange.

Cover a pint of red raspberries with cold water and place over the fire to simmer fifteen minutes. Then press through a sieve and return the juice to the fire. Cook with half a cup of sugar for five minutes. Then add two tablespoons of cornstarch mixed with half a cup of water. Cook and stir all the time until the mixture is smooth and has no raw taste. Then remove from the stove and beat in the well-whipped whites of two eggs. Pour into mold and cook thoroughly. Serve with a soft custard made of a pint of milk and the yolks of the eggs with a half cup of sugar. Plain or whipped cream may be served instead of the custard, if preferred.
